

Porlock Community Library Supporting National Libraries Week October 8th to 12th, 2018

- Monday, 8th October at 1030am Library coffee (with cake!) morning.
- Tuesday, 9th October at 1030am Community Police Officer, Linda Brooks, will be hosting 'Coffee with Cops'.
  - On Tuesday afternoon, Porlock's 'Knit and Natter' group are meeting in the library from 230pm. Come and join them, with your knitting project.
- Wednesday, 10th October at 230pm Porlock's Horticultural Society will be hosting 'Gardeners Question Time'. Bring your gardening question to their panel of experts.
- Thursday, 1 1th October at 1 1am Library Poets will be reading their own and other favourite poems. Everyone with an interest in poetry is very welcome.
  - On Thursday afternoon, starting at 230pm, a representative of Age UK will be giving a talk about the services they offer locally for health and well-being, including a short taster session of Tai Chi.
- Friday, 12th October at 1030am will see the return of clarinet and saxophone player, Bev Trimming, playing popular tunes and light classics to soothe and cheer.

There will be a secondhand book sale throughout the week. Come along and find out what libraries are really all about! We look forward to seeing you there!