ITC Emergency 1- Day Outdoor First Aid Course Thursday 20 December

This qualification is suitable for those wishing to develop their first aid skills and confidence. There will be an outdoor focus due to the rural nature of West Somerset, we can't expect the same emergency service response time and the training reflect this. It will be delivered both inside and outside, on the beach, in the woods, in a practical and informative manner using a range of high quality resources. You'll receive a nationally recognised certificate and first aid manual to take away with you.
