

Frozen 2 at The Regal Theatre

Frozen 2 (Cert U) comes to the big screen at the Minehead Regal Theatre for a matinee performance on Saturday December 12th at 2.30pm. Local LADA Dance Academy will introduce the performance with a live dance routine and even Queen Elsa is expected to pop in and say hello.

In keeping with the Frozen theme, the Regal event will be attended by princes and princesses – but that's only if all the young people put on their very best costumes and they'll automatically be entered into a competition and could win a prize. And for those princes and princesses who don't win a prize, there's always the lucky dip.

Tickets for Frozen 2 may only be booked by telephoning the Regal box office on 01643 706430 between 9.30am and 12.00pm (Monday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday) and cost £5.00 (£3.00 for Regal Film Society members, Friends of the Regal, full-time students/unemployed).

After lifting the curse of the eternal winter and harnessing her ever-growing power in Frozen (2013), in Frozen 2 the beautiful conjurer of snow and ice Queen Elsa rules the peaceful kingdom of Arendelle, enjoying a happy life with her sister Princess Anna.

However, a melodious voice that only Elsa can hear keeps her awake, inviting her to the mystical enchanted forest that the sisters' father told them about long ago. Unable to ignore the call of the secret siren, Elsa, along with Anna, Kristoff, Olaf, and Sven summon up the courage to follow the voice into the unknown.

With not only her kingdom but also the neighbouring tribe of Northuldra in danger, can Queen Elsa put her legendary magical skills to good use to restore peace and stability?

The show will be open to the public and is the second in a programme of Christmas Saturday matinees to be followed by that quintessential Christmas experience The Nutcracker from the Royal Opera House on Saturday December 19.

Government guidelines have been implemented to ensure that audiences and volunteers are protected, with safety precautions and practical social distancing measures in place. Many of those who have already attended events since the reopening of the Regal in early September gave very positive feedback about their experience, saying they felt confident that their safety was given utmost priority.

There will be two empty seats either side of individually booked seats – or blocks of seats booked for people from one household – in order to comply with social distancing guidelines. Everyone will be asked to use the hand sanitiser provided and wear a face mask on entering the theatre.

Unfortunately, it is not possible at this stage to offer online booking or to open the box office for ticket sales in person. The theatre bar will not be open for refreshments before performances until further notice. More details about forthcoming events and how to join the Regal Theatre mailing list are available on the website www.regaltheatre.co.uk.
